ROBERT SILLER
Editor-in-Chief

The year has passed, and we now look back on it and cherish the wonderful memories that will never be forgotten.

Who will be able to forget the confusion of registration, the excitement of Color Day, or the other fun-filled events that made up the school year?

Sophomores encountered their first year of high school. Juniors participated in and enjoyed just about every activity they could find. Seniors completed their third successful year of learning and training at Brackenridge and prepared to enter the outside world and exert their newly found knowledge and ideas of leadership.

As we look through La Retama years from now, we will recall, laugh about, and ponder a multitude of incidents. We of the La Retama Staff call them -- A MILLION MAGIC MOMENTS.

Color Day was climaxed by the Eagles' victory over the Tech Buffaloes.

Dedication

WELDON FORREN
Head Coach

What does it take to win a state football championship as our Eagles did this year? It takes team effort and determination, sweat and bruises, and maybe some tears, too. And, it takes a coaching staff.

Not just any coaching staff, but the kind we have at Brackenridge.

Head Coach Weldon Forren master-minded the Eagles' drive for the championship. Using a long-range plan for team development, he completely fooled the experts.

Line Coach Joseph Mullins molded the relatively light Eagle line into one of the toughest in the state. Three times in the last two crucial games it stopped the foes with herculean goal line stands.

Backfield Coach Rode Gonzales helped make the Brackenridge offense into the most potent and most feared in the state.

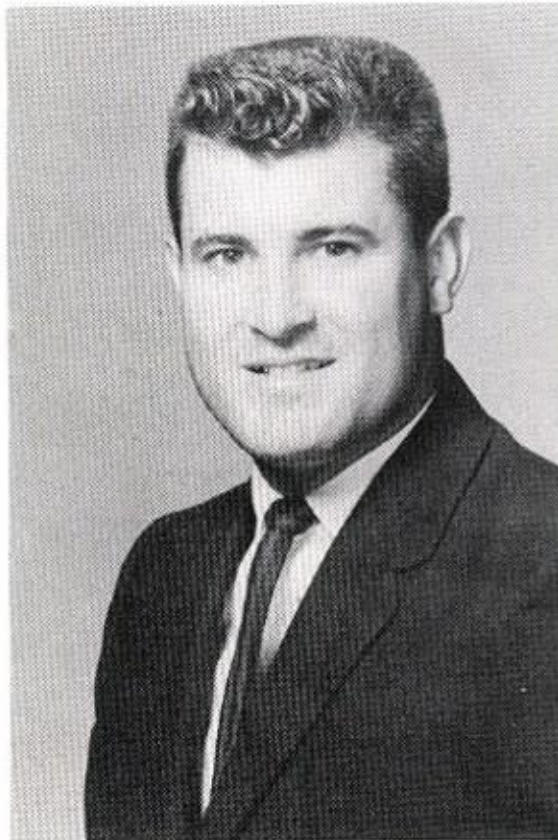

And Coach Herman Humble, in reality a basketball coach, aided the cause by serving as a scout and assisting in any way he could.

In recognition of the achievement of these four men, the 1963 La Retama is dedicated to the Brackenridge coaching staff.

Strong Leadership

Mr. E. O. Hakala became principal of Brackenridge in 1958, after serving a year as vice-principal. He received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Education from State Teachers College in Fitchburg, Massachusetts and his Master of Education from Harvard University.

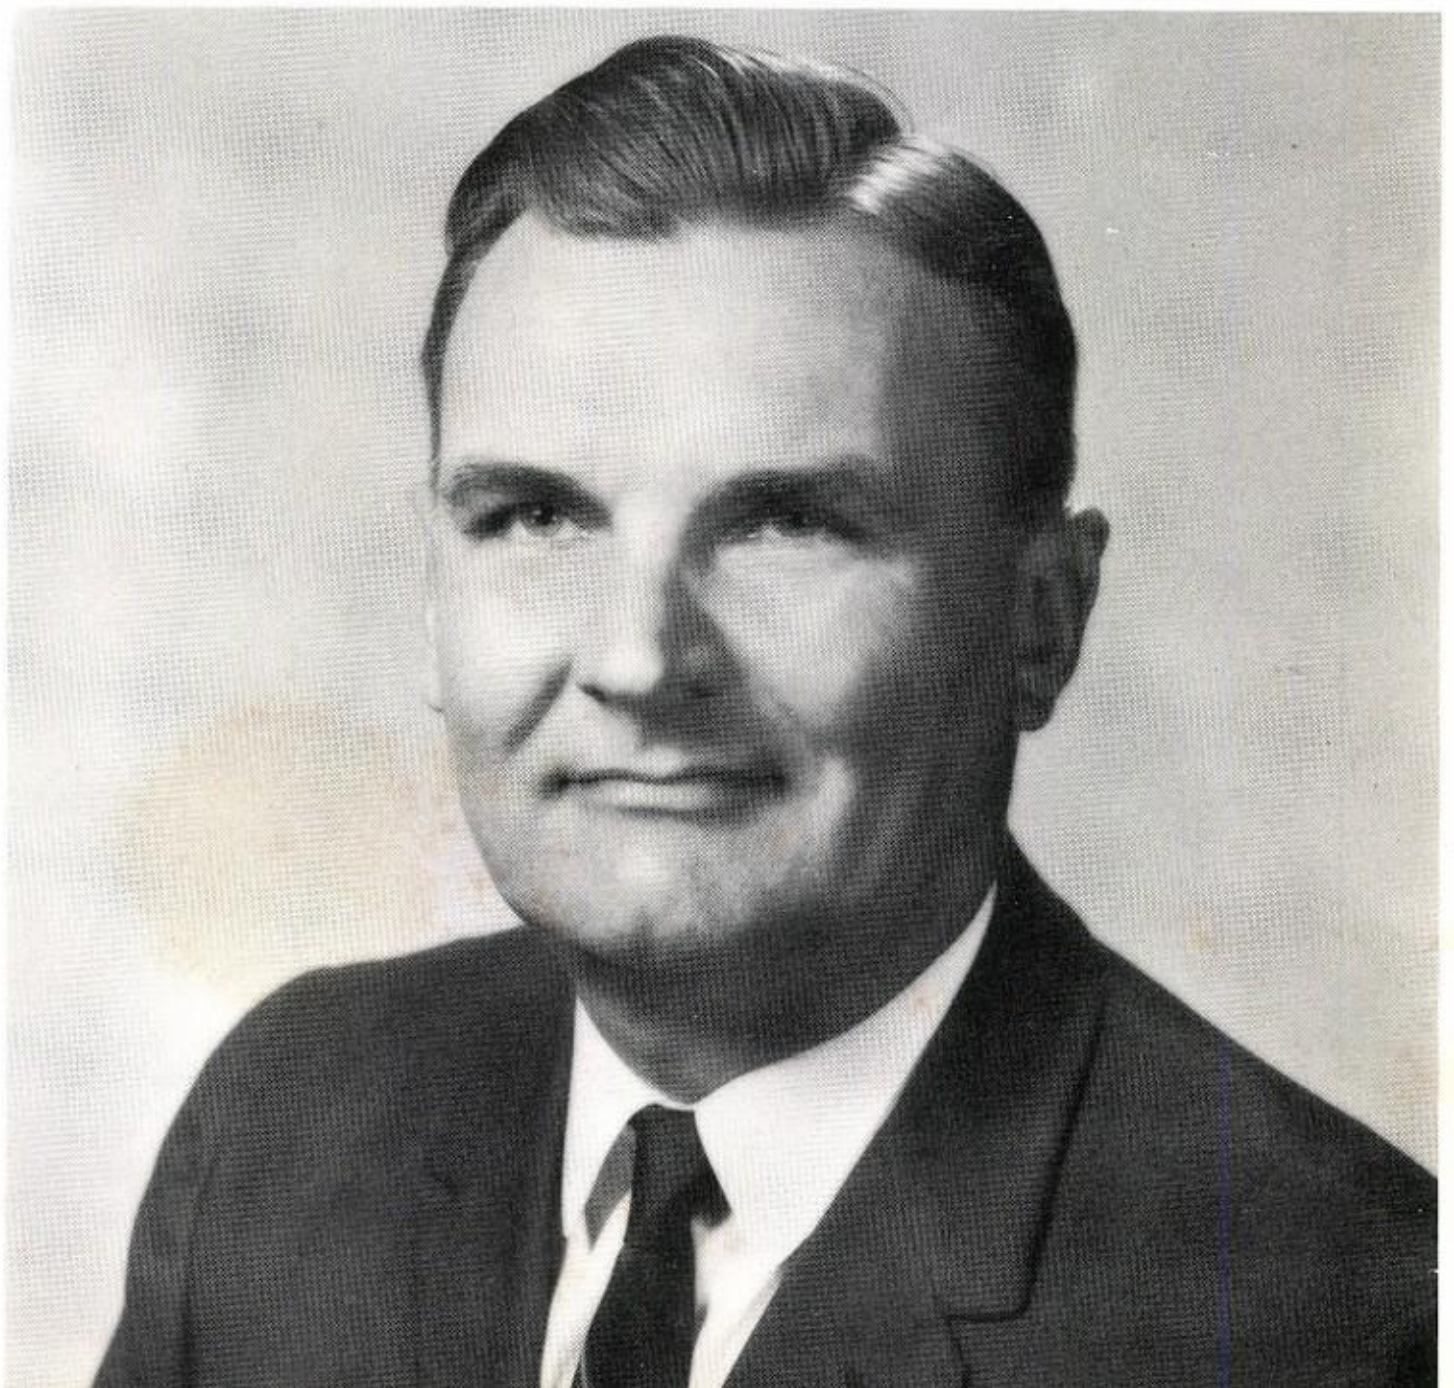

Of all his duties, ranging from choosing the best teachers to setting school policies, his most important is seeing that the students are provided with the best education possible. New rules and regulations are made with the welfare of the students in mind, and emphasis is placed on subjects which will enable the students to one day carry on the affairs of the world.

During the first week in December, 1962, Mr. Hakala represented the San Antonio Independent School District and Brackenridge at the 56th Annual Vocational Convention in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Mr. Hakala uses the public address system for daily announcements.

Mrs. Grace C. Keeling, dean of girls, attended the University of Texas where she received her Masters Degree. She also holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Southwest Texas State Teachers College. Mrs. Zora Melton, school treasurer and head of the Commercial Department, is completing 51 years of teaching in Texas. Thirty-four of these years have been spent at Brackenridge where she gives practical bookkeeping experience to business students. She also teaches classes in advanced typing and beginning and advanced bookkeeping.

Study hall is a valuable time for many students. During this period, which is designated for silent study, a student has the opportunity to catch up on his homework.

Books are keys to open the door of knowledge. Librarians Miss Irene Henderson, Miss Elizabeth Fraley, and Mrs. Frances Gembler are the keepers of these keys. Besides supervising the library, they are on hand to help students find books for that fast-approaching term theme or book report.

The Brackenridge P.T.A. is a growing organization. It meets once a month in the school auditorium to discuss the present methods of education and to investigate all ways for student improvement.

During the 62-63 school year, it sponsored the annual Open House, Mexican supper, talent show, and the Aloha Prom.

P.T.A. officers preside at a monthly meeting.

Maintaining Brack Is Their Job

Andrada, Guerrero, Almendarez, Riley, Rivera, Muenchow, Scott, Acevedo, Sanchez.

The Cafeteria is open early each morning for students who wish to study before school.

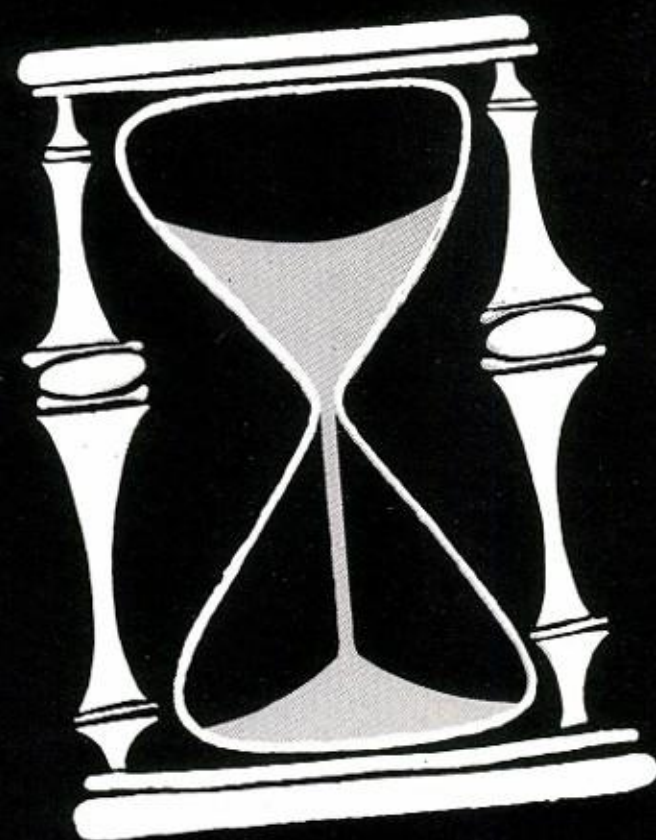

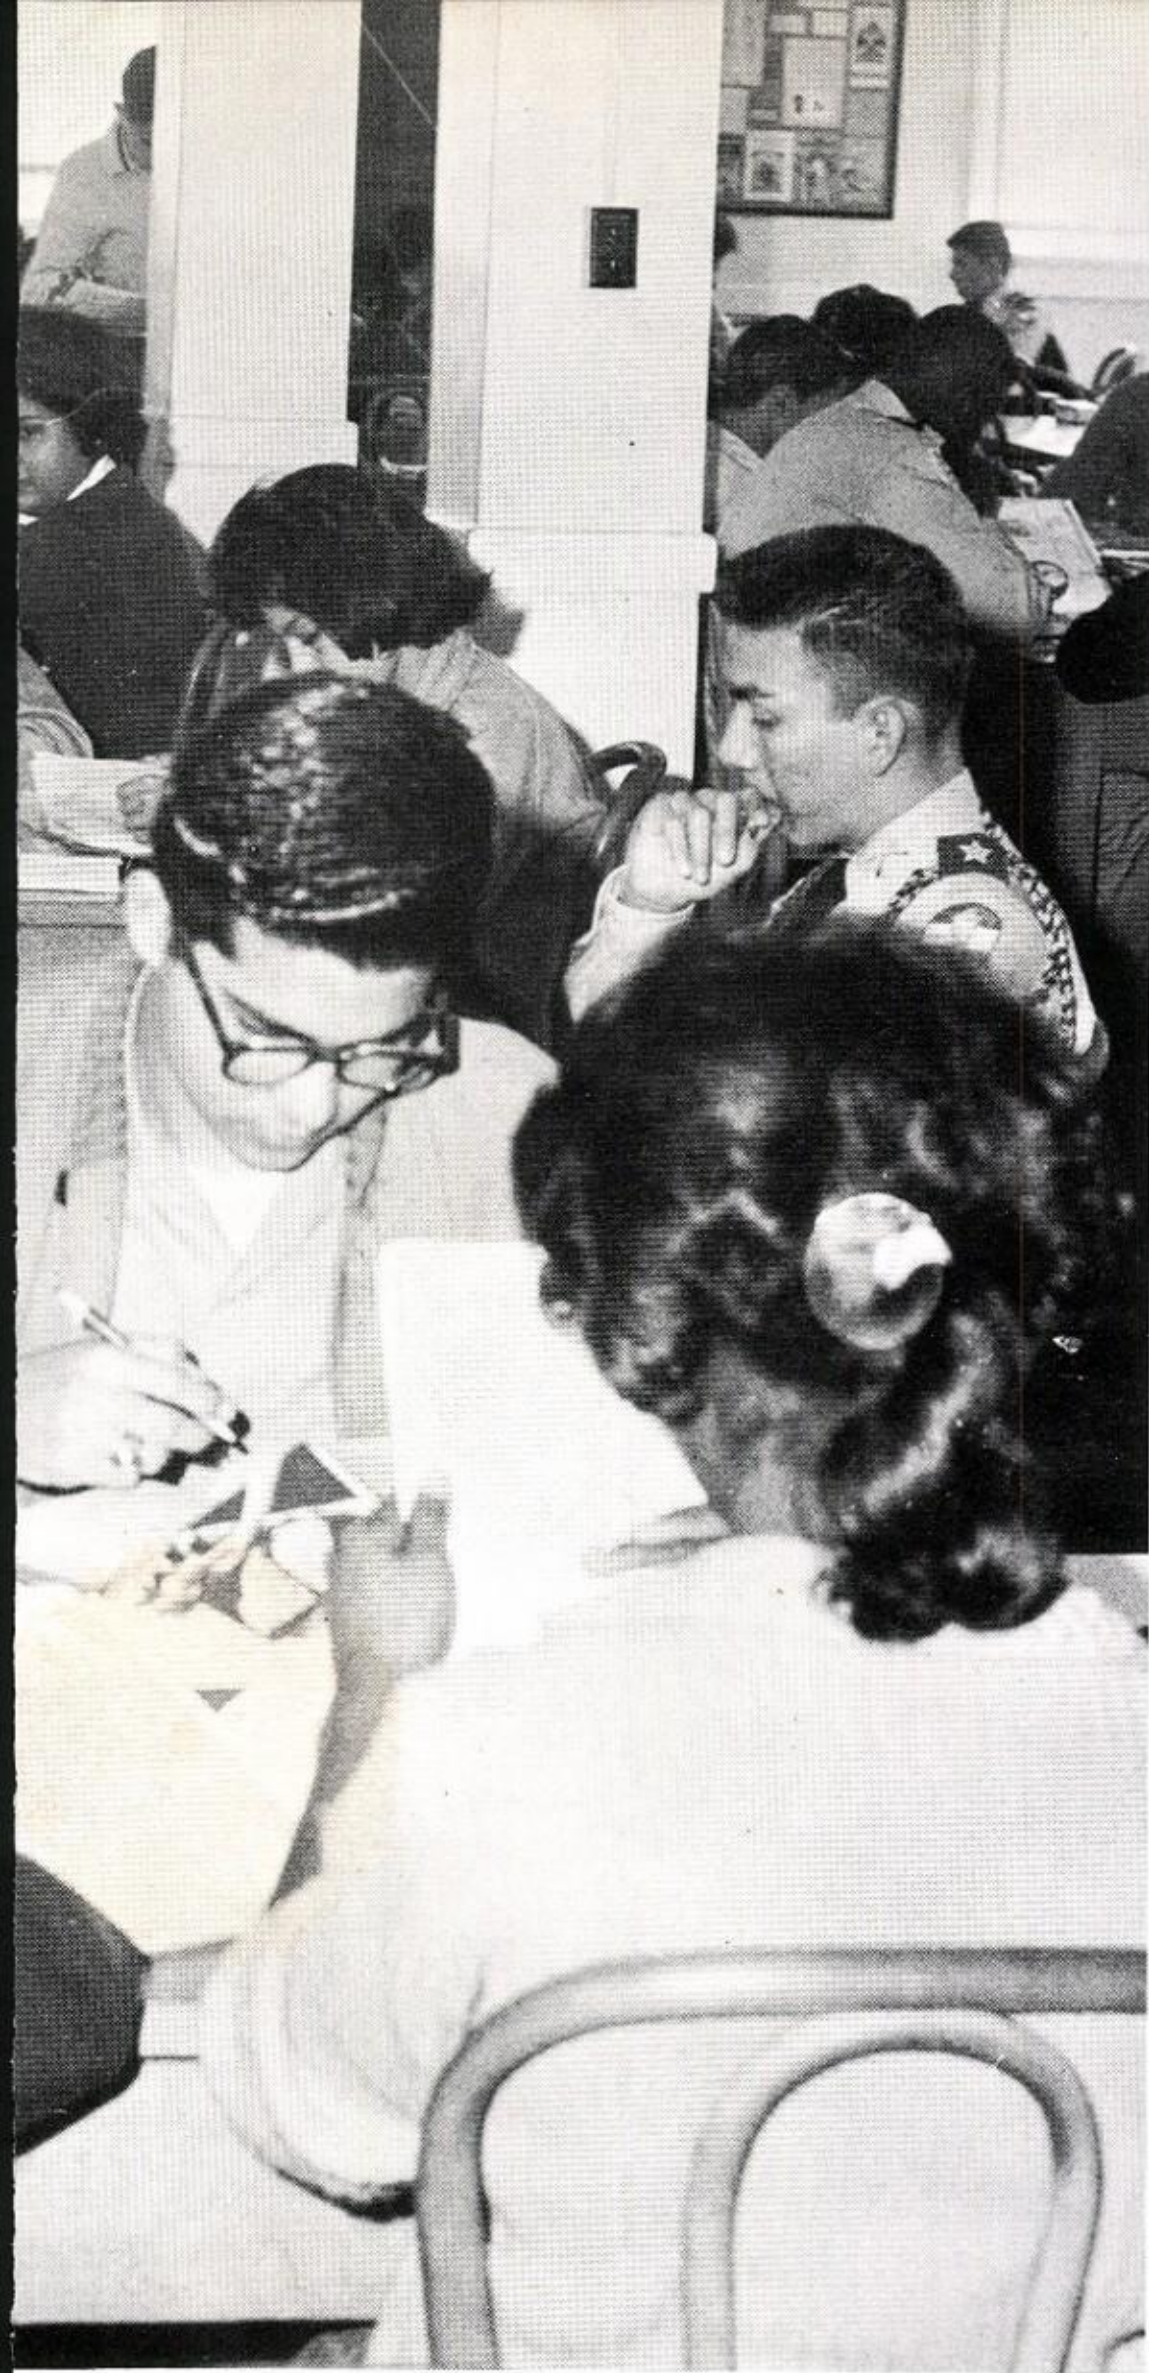

Both hot and cold lunches are served in the cafeteria. Students in the cold lunch line can buy hamburgers, barbecue on buns, and sandwiches. Those students who bring their lunch use the upstairs cafeteria, thus keeping the downstairs cafeteria from becoming crowded.

The maintenance workers are on the job early in the morning until late at night. These men and women keep the school clean, in good condition, and well heated during the winter months. Their job requires them to be always on the go, and their energy seems tireless.

Wide, Wonderful World

After 11 long years of study and hope, the magic day arrived, May 24, 1963--graduation day.

September commenced the memorable year. The Kick-off Prom, ordering senior rings and taking cap and gown pictures gave seniors a hint of the great moments that lay ahead. "Winter Fantasy," the seniors' Christmas dance, ended the year and signaled the start of those few remaining months.

To have a district championship football team in one's senior year is great, but a state championship was a dream come true. Brownsville, Houston, and finally Abilene, site of the final game, saw the best Brackenridge school spirit ever and the seniors greatly contributed to this spirit.

After recovering from the excitement, everyone knew their years of study had not been in vain when they proceeded along those carpeted aisles of the Municipal Auditorium on that day of days.

Sweetheart Prom Successful

Able class leaders and a conscientious sponsor are necessary for a successful year and the juniors, Class of 1964, were fortunate to have both.

Among their activities was the traditional Sweetheart Prom on February 7 and later in the year the junior picnic.

Now that their year comes to a close, juniors are faced with a startling reality. No longer can they look up to seniors and dream of graduation; now they are seniors and that dream soon will come true.

When they return in September, they will have decisions to make and examples to set for those not-so-fortunate juniors and sophomores.

Class Of 1965

Entering a new school, especially jumping from junior high school, can be frightening to a young person. Feelings of excitement, amazement, and fear were experienced by sophomores as they entered the halls of Brackenridge for the first time. During their sophomore year, they adjusted to high school life by making new friends, joining clubs, and taking part in various activities.

In classrooms, their learning took on new and different meanings. They competed scholastically to become members of honor organizations. They elected class officers, took part in the annual dance, and became responsible citizens of Brackenridge High School.

Fun And Festivities

Long registration lines, closed classes, new friends, the first dance, and football games can only mean the beginning of a new school year.

After the hectic scramble to get the teachers they want, Brackites settled down to an eventful school year.

The Kick-off Prom was the first dance of the year and happy Eagleland thronged to the upstairs cafeteria to dance to their favorite tunes.

Highlight The Year

Over 600 new sophomores were engulfed by the famous Brackenridge spirit as the first pep rally cheered an outstanding football team to a victory over Uvalde. Pep rallies and football success go hand in hand and the student body helped the Eagles sweep to a second district championship and a state championship.

The Eagle Band and Purple Jackets led the students as enthusiasm grew throughout the school with the approach of each game.

Brackites Take Part

THE day of the football season is Color Day, an annual event during which students go all out to boost the Eagle footballers to victory. With a district championship at stake in a game with Fox Tech, the entire student body and faculty dressed in purple and white to celebrate the occasion.

From early in the morning until late at night, Color Day festivities dotted the day's agenda.

A flag-raising ceremony by the R.O.T.C., Band, and Purple Jackets started the day, followed by judging of the best-dressed boy and girl in the auditorium. Competition was keen, but Joe Lujan and Connie Guajardo emerged as victors.

A poster contest was won by Daniel Constancio as judges decided his creation was tops among the many entries.

In Color Day Activities

The Ravens Literary Society won the best-decorated bulletin board contest and later in the day Mr. Charles Applegate's advisory was judged winner in that contest.

School spirit, which had been building throughout the day, reached its peak at the pep rally and a surging throng of cheering Brackites urged their Eagle team to a victory. The cheerleaders, Purple Jackets, and Band led the student body in yells of victory and appreciation for the team.

Following the pep rally, Andrew Besa displayed a purple and white Model A which won the best-decorated car contest.

But, Color Day was not over. The big game was still to come and a victory would be a fitting climax to a day already packed with excitement. Alamo Stadium was filled with the Brackenridge spirit and the Eagle team rose to the occasion with a 19-0 victory.

BRACK 30 SPRING BRANCH 23

A crowd of 15,000 saw Victor Castillo side-arm the Eagles to a 30-23 semi-finals victory over the Spring Branch Bears at Houston.

The sure hands of Pete Bautista caught two touchdown aerals while Warren McVea caught two and Johnny Pesina another. Spring Branch got an early eight point lead, but the determined Eagles came bouncing back with a kick-off return by McVea, who spun, scratched, and wriggled his way 52 yards to the Bears' 26. One play later, Castillo hurled the pigskin into the hands of Bautista in the end zone.

Touchdowns began to pour. The Eagles traveled 53 yards for a TD, the last 23 yards on a pass play to Bautista.

Brack ignited an 83 yard march to take the lead late in the third quarter with Castillo side-arming 25 yards to Pesina. After Bautista recovered a pitchout on the Brack 24, Castillo again struck with a 78 yard TD pass to Bautista. A little later, an unexpected aerial bomb to McVea and a key block by Eddie Villarreal put the Warbirds' final TD on the boards.

Robert Wade intercepted a Spring Branch pass on the one-yard line to end the Bears' final threat.

The victory marked the first time since 1947 that a San Antonio team advanced beyond semi-finals. Oddly enough, Brack was the team in 1947 that won the state championship.

BRACK 30 BORGER 26

Quarterback Victor Castillo passed for three touchdowns, and the Eagles held off a gallant fourth quarter rally to nudge the undefeated Borger Bulldogs, 30-26, and win the Class AAAA state championship before 10,000 seat-clutching fans.

After an early deficit of 8-0, the Warbirds scored 14 points in five minutes in the second quarter. Pete Bautista scored the first TD, grabbing a 58-yard pass and a 14-yard pass for the tally. Castillo ran the two-point conversion. The second score came on a Castillo-McVea aerial. A toss to Johnny Pesina made it 24-8 and Borger's heralded defensive wall began to crumble. The final TD came when McVea blasted over from the two after a sustained march.

The Bulldogs narrowed the gap to 30-26 with only minutes to play, but the Brack defensive unit, led by Sidro Villalobos, Edward Coleman, Alfred Valdez, and Donald Richardson, dug in and stopped the final Borger threat. With time fast running out, the Bulldogs were forced to forsake their relentless ground game and go to the air. However, three tries resulted in three losses and on fourth down, the Brack defense poured in and smothered the Borger quarterback, and their title hopes.

Spotting Edison a 10 point lead as late as the third quarter, Brack battled back in the opener to tie the score, only to be stopped in the final minute, 54-51. Two more losses followed before Brack would taste victory. In the Harlandale Tournament, Highlands defeated Brack, 50-38, and powerhouse Burbank rolled to a 54-40 win. However, revenge was sweet when Brack recorded its first win with a 53-42 romp over Edison.

Another win followed as Sam Houston fell, 33-25. Jefferson, pre-season favorite to win the District 15-AAAA crown, ended the Brack winning streak with a 54-39 victory. In a tight ball game, Highlands edged Brack, 36-34, nipping an Eagle rally in the closing moments.

Brackenridge edged Alamo Heights, 51-49, in the opening round of the Lee Tournament and appeared ready to successfully defend their tournament championship. However, in the second round, Robert E. Lee dashed the Eagles hopes, 47-38 and McAllen downed the Eagles in their third game 49-46 with Lee going ahead to win their own tourney.

A 38-33 victory over Central Catholic tuned up the Eagles for the San Antonio Invitational Tournament. However, the outclassed Birds were trounced in the first round by Victoria, 63-36, but bounced back to nip Edison, 47-45. In the second round of the consolation bracket, fans really got their money's worth when Brack and Lee battled through a four-overtime marathon before Brack won, 70-66. Corpus Christi Miller was the last obstacle for the brash Eagles and a 62-50 Brack win landed them the consolation trophy.

Old nemesis Jefferson handed the Eagles their first loss in four games, 52-30 and Highlands made it two in a row, 55-41. Back in the win column, Brack dumped Central Catholic for the second time, 62-41, and closing out the non-district schedule, was bounced by San Marcos, 76-56.

BRACK 42 LANIER 40

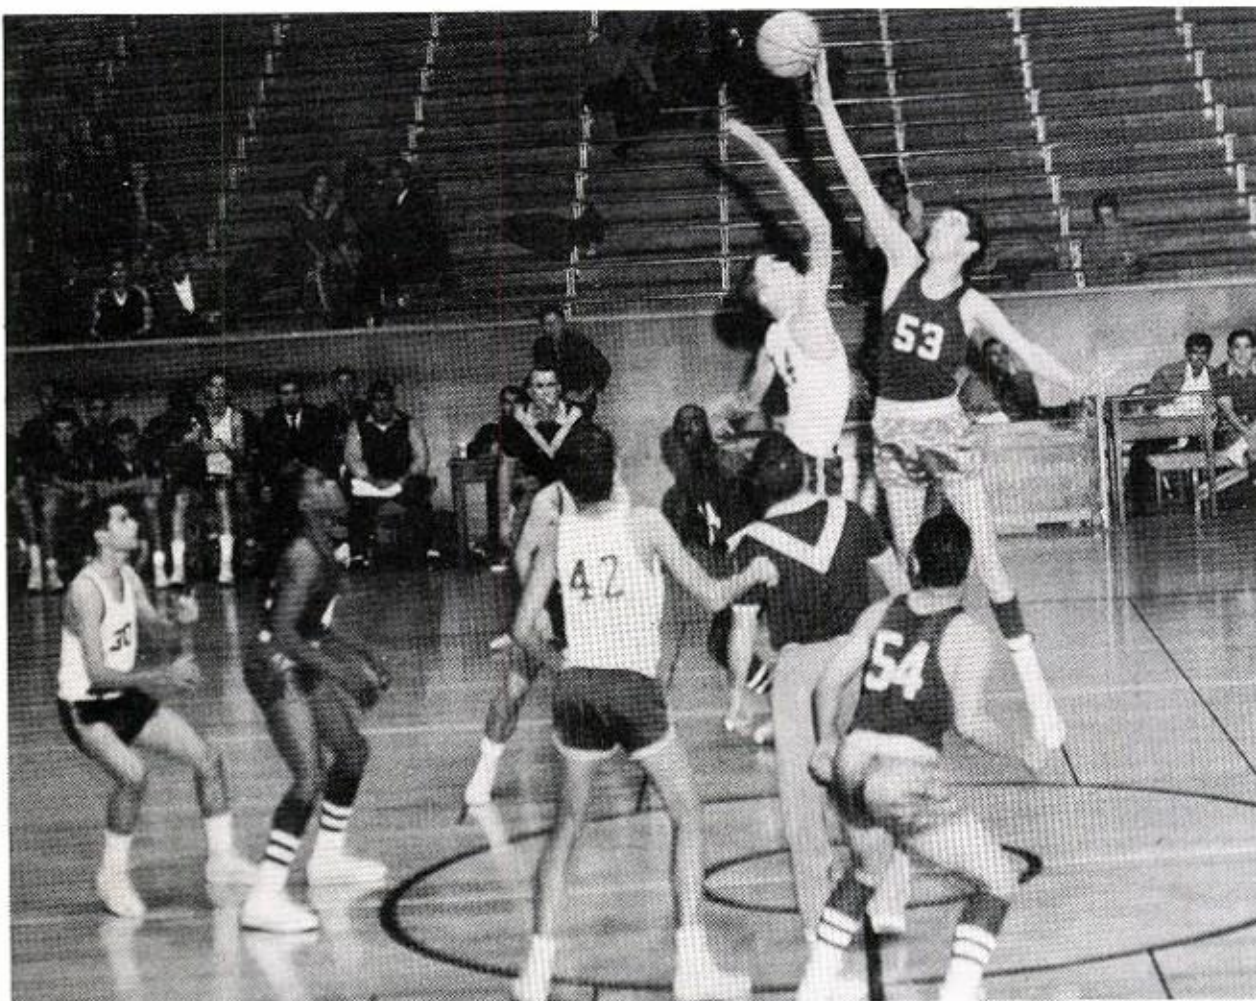

The free throw line was a big factor in the Eagles' surprising win over the Lanier Voks in the District 16-AAAA opener. Henry Garcia defied the much-respected Lanier defense and chalked up 20 big points for Brack's cause.

BRACK 49 FOX TECH 50

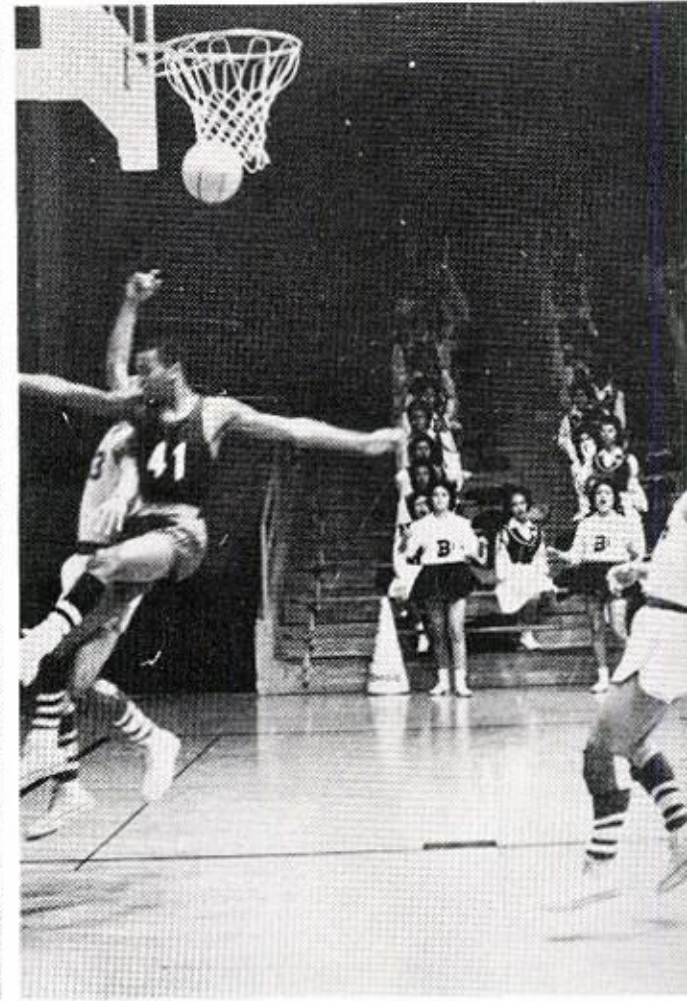

The Fox Tech Buffs trimmed the Eagles in what was billed as an upset. The unexpected blow came when Tech took a sizeable lead in the second quarter after Brack led through the first period. A late Brack rally fell short of its goal. Warren McVea set the pace for the Eagles with 14 points while Ruben Whitney was close behind with 12.

BRACK 33 McCOLLUM 22

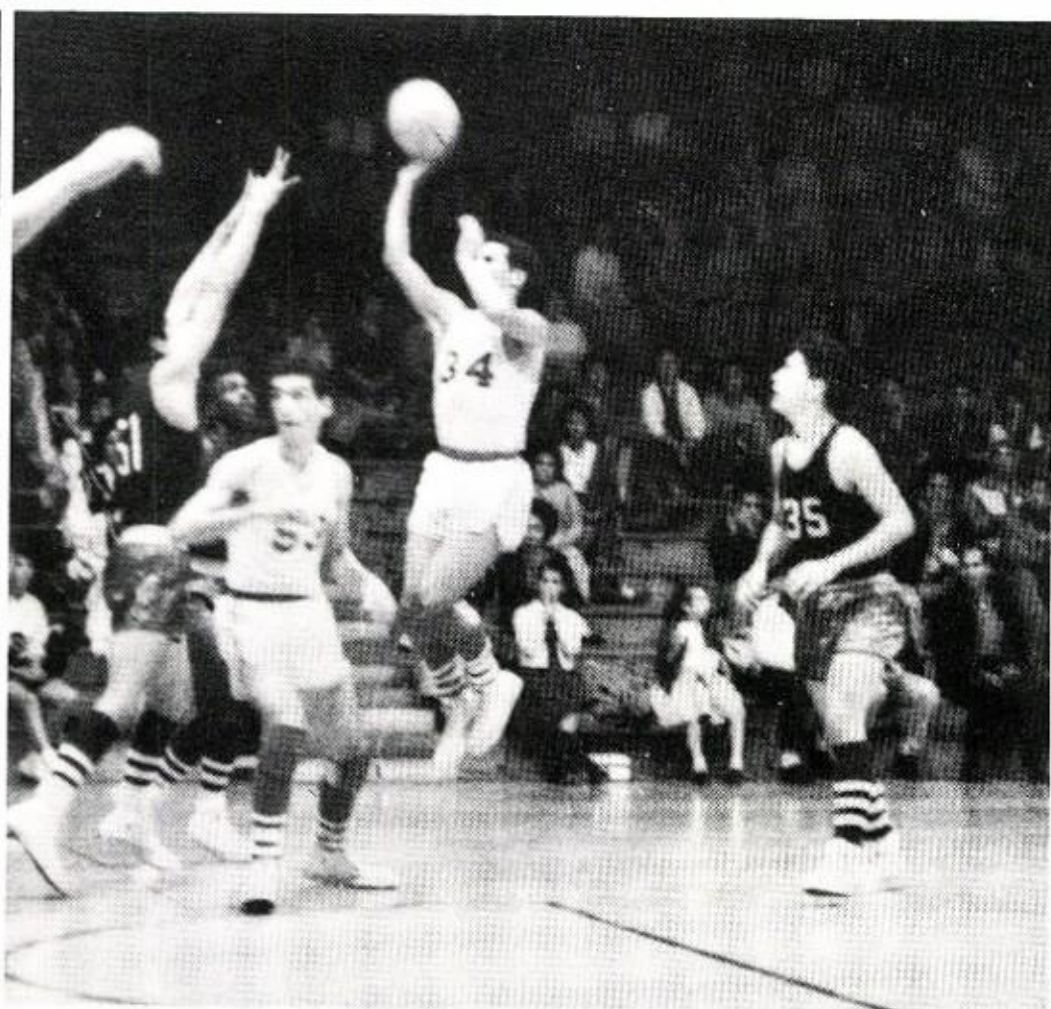

The Brackenridge Eagles gave the McCollum Cowboys, newcomers to District 16-AAAA, a taste of what to expect from perennial conference favorites. A low-scoring ball game resulted in a 33-22 victory for the Warbirds, their second in district competition. Center George Falcon topped the Eagle scoring with 17 points.

BRACK 46 EDGEWOOD 28

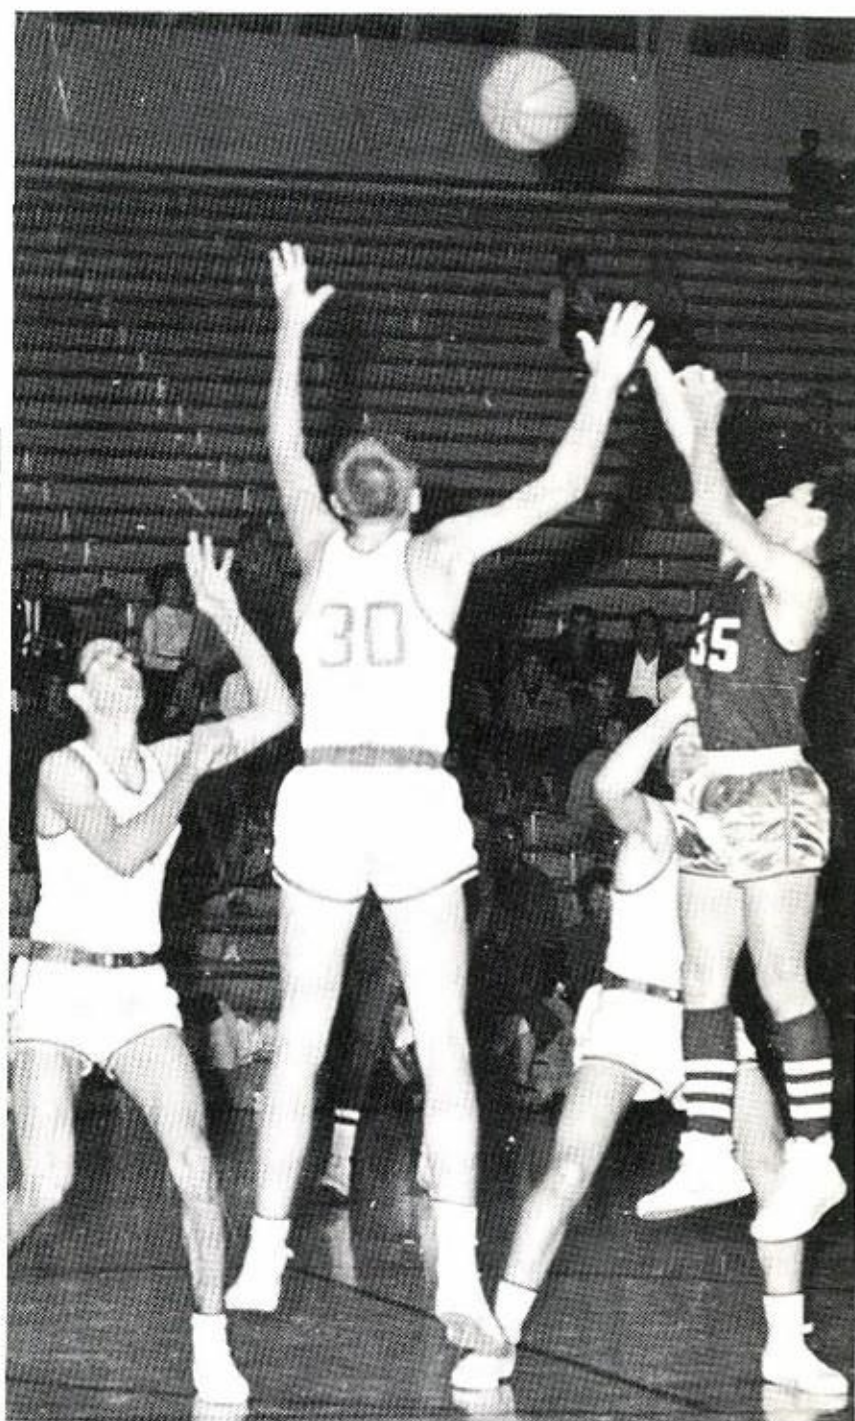

Edgewood Red Raiders became the third victim of the Brackenridge onslaught as they fell, 46-28, in a near rout on the Raiders' home court. The win pulled Brack into undisputed second place in the conference, trailing undefeated Burbank. Senior Ruben Whitney led the Eagle attack, netting 16 points.

BRACK 64 LAREDO 54

The Laredo Martin Tigers fell victim to the defending champion Eagles, 64-54, who sought to win the district title two years in a row.

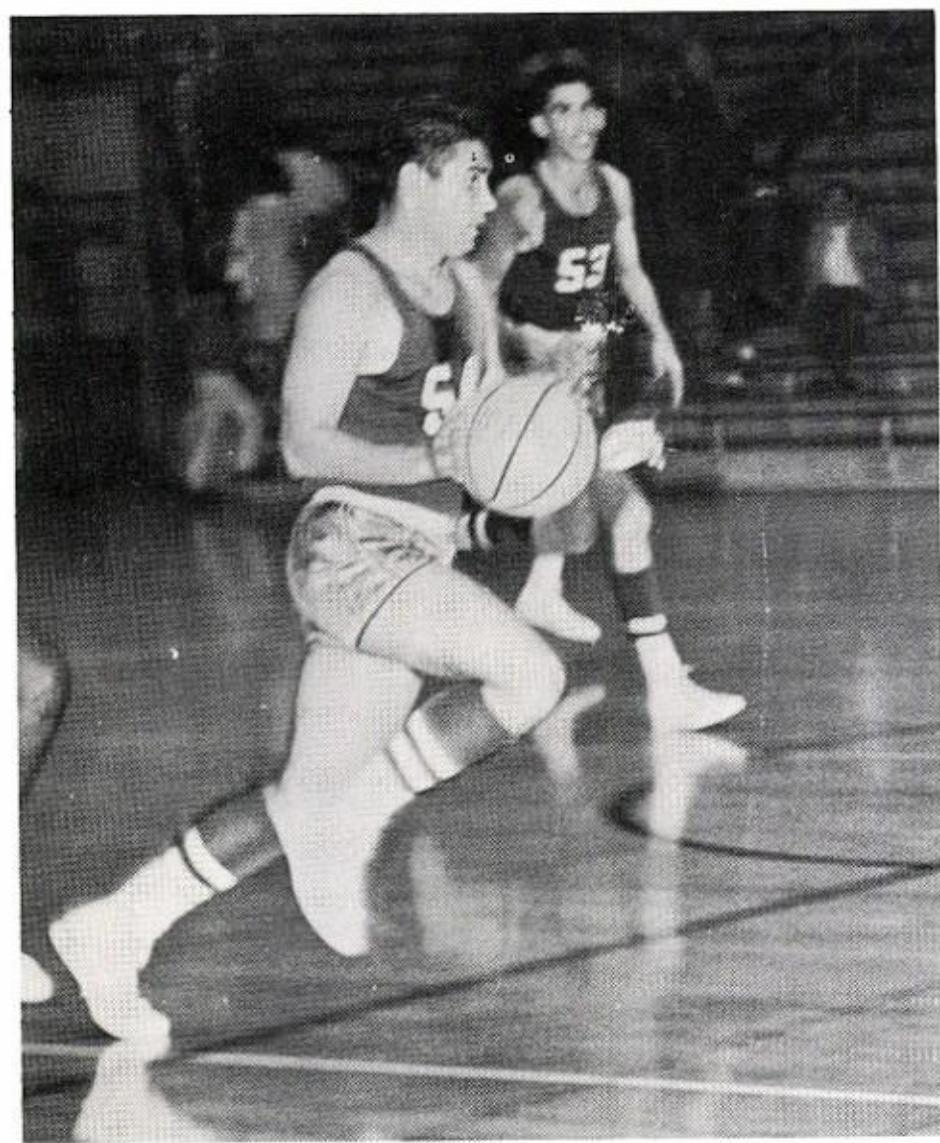

Henry Garcia, soon to be lost to the team because of graduation, bagged 26 points, high for the night. George Falcon and Ruben Whitney each contributed 10 points as Brackenridge led throughout most of the game.

BRACK 47 BURBANK 58

Burbank, currently the hottest team in District 1 AAAA, dealt a crushing blow to the Eagles' hopes for a second loop championship, 58-47. The defeat dropped Brack two games behind the Bulldogs.

Henry Garcia tallied 16 points for the losing effort while Ruben Whitney was next highest with eight points.

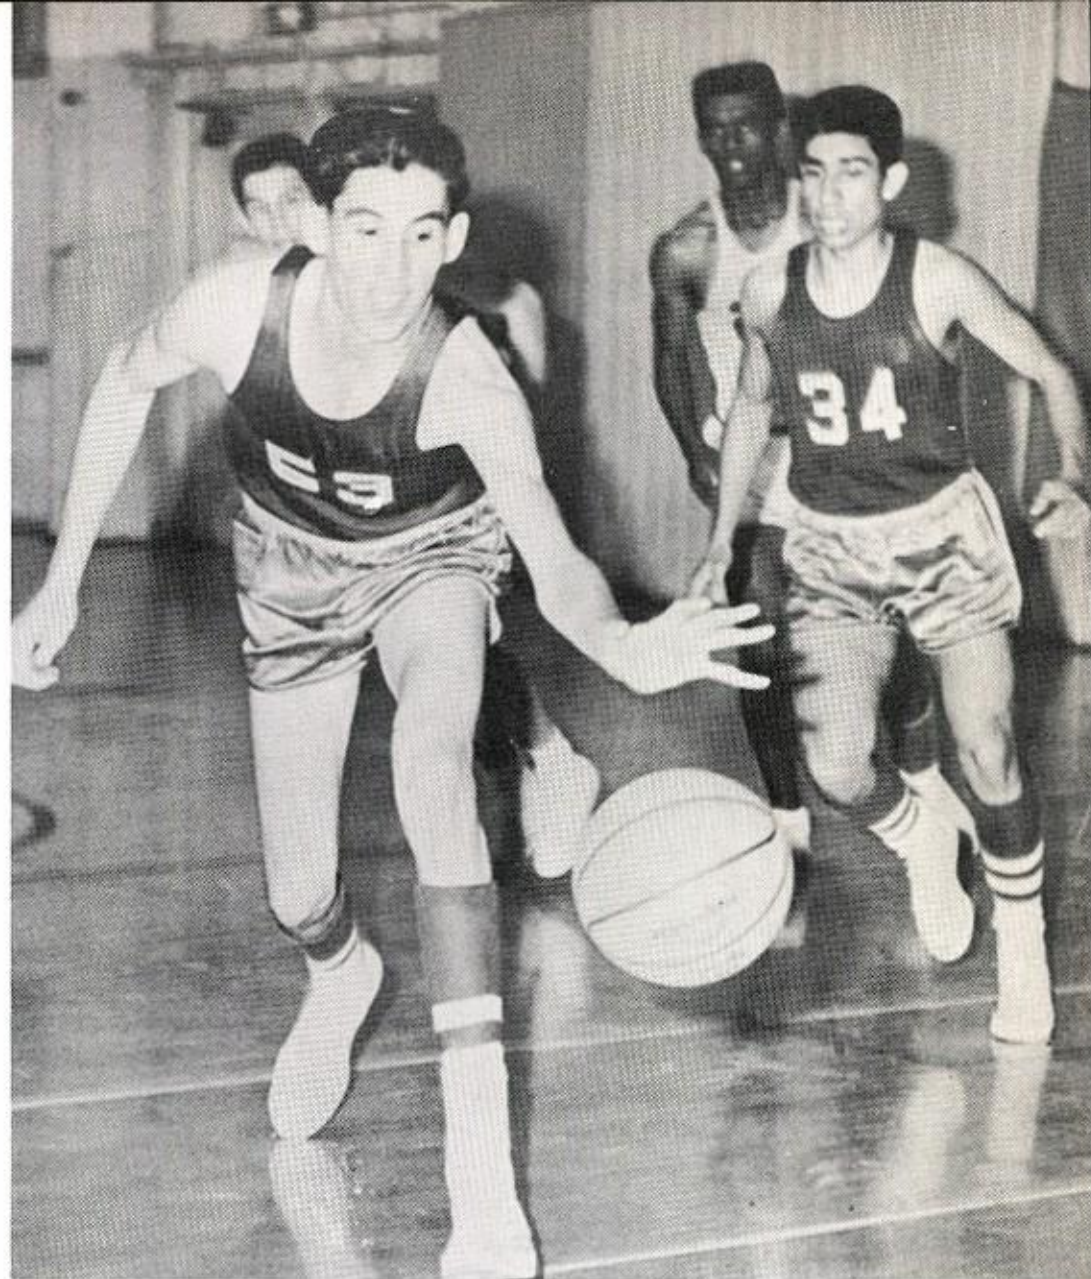

Although giving up a height advantage to the Eagles, Burbank's speed and deadly shooting more than evened the terms.

BRACK 49 McCOLLUM 38

Fighting back from a surprising 21-16 McCollum halftime lead, the Brackenridge cagers racked up their second win over the first-year Cowboys, 49-38. A 24-point effort by Ruben Whitney, mostly in the second half, nailed down the victory. A zone defense by McCollum effectively halted Brack until the second half. A switch to a man-to-man defense in an effort to stop Whitney allowed the Eagles to stretch their lead.

BRACK 52 EDGEWOOD 38

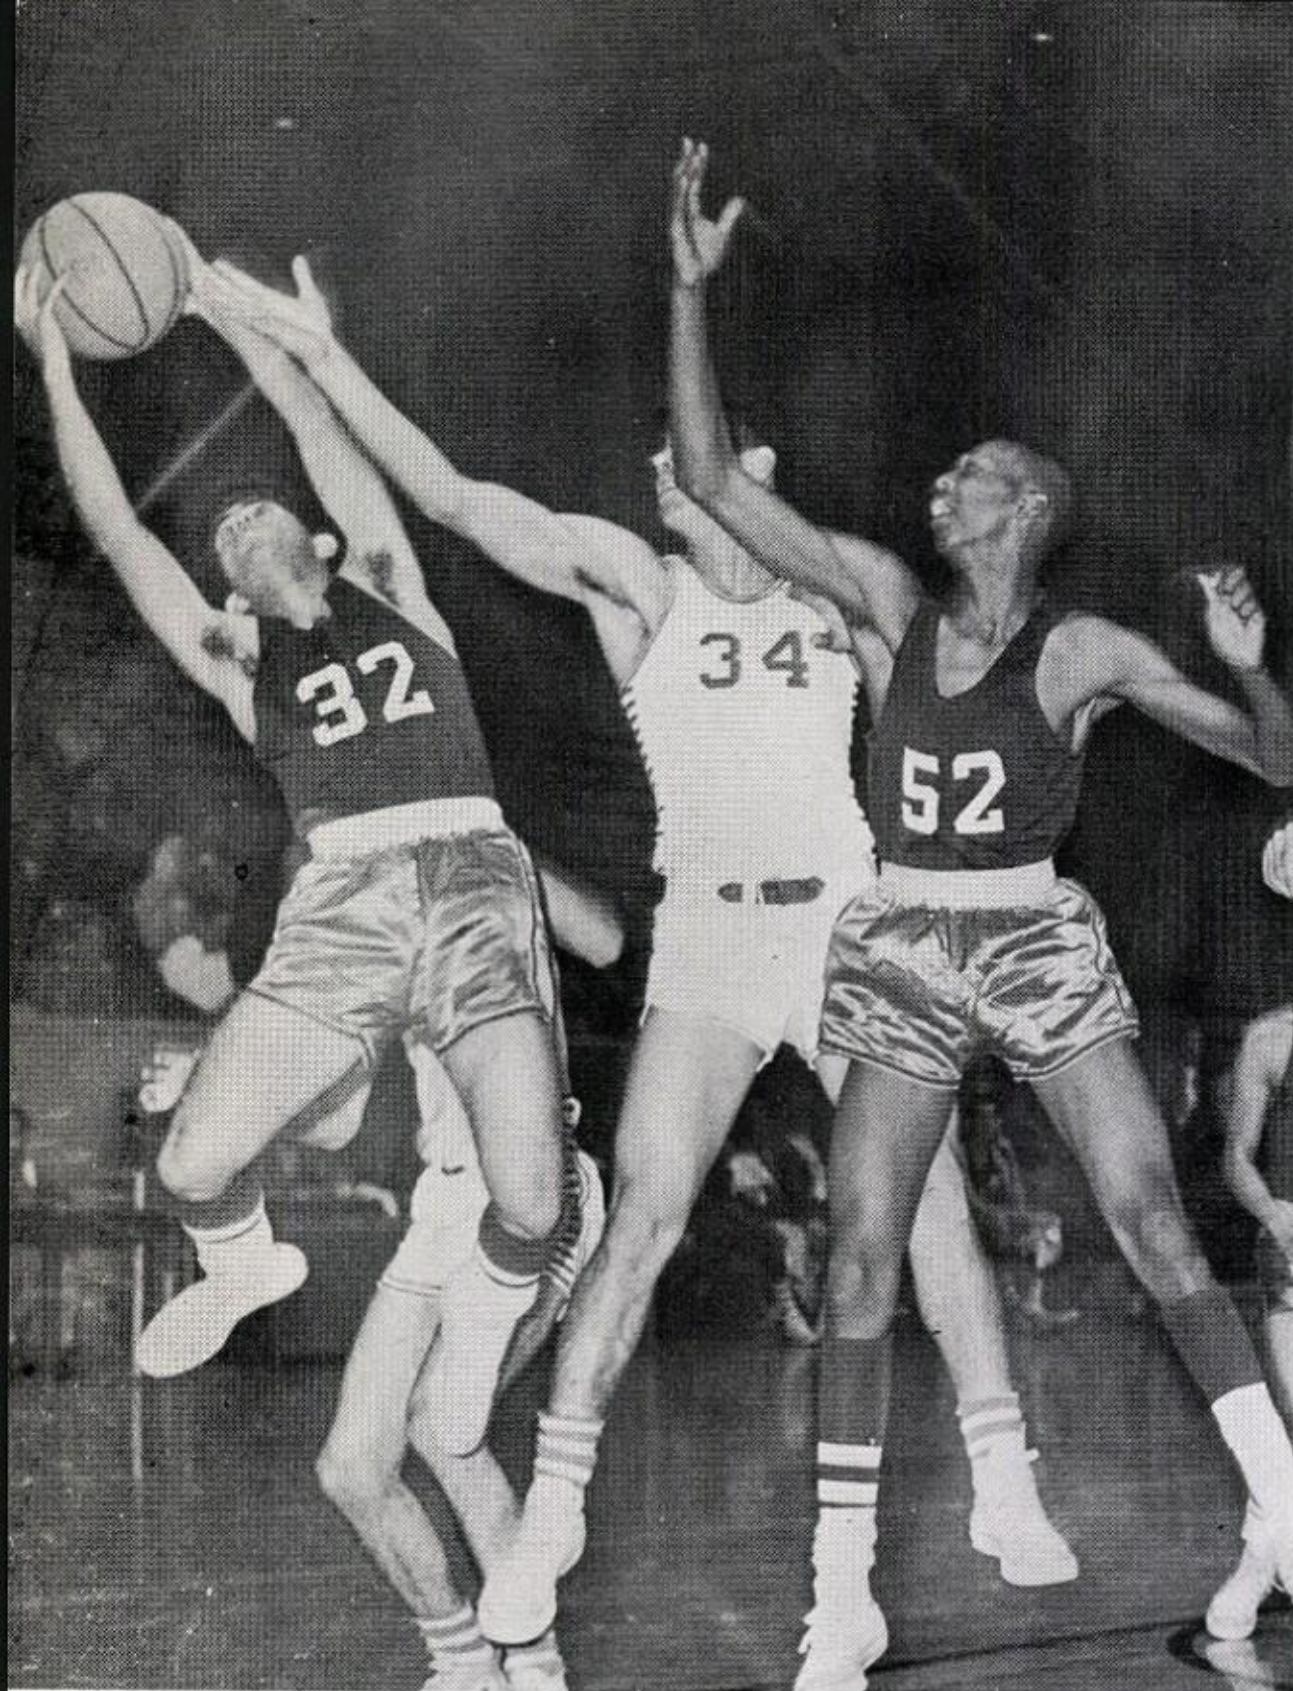

The defeat of the Edgewood Red Raiders, 52-38, kept the Eagles' hopes alive for a share of the District AAAA crown.

The game turned into a rout for Brack after the lead changed hands briefly in the first period. The sharp-shooting Birds took command of the game in the second period and Edgewood could not muster a serious threat. The win made the Brack district record 6-2 at this point in the season.

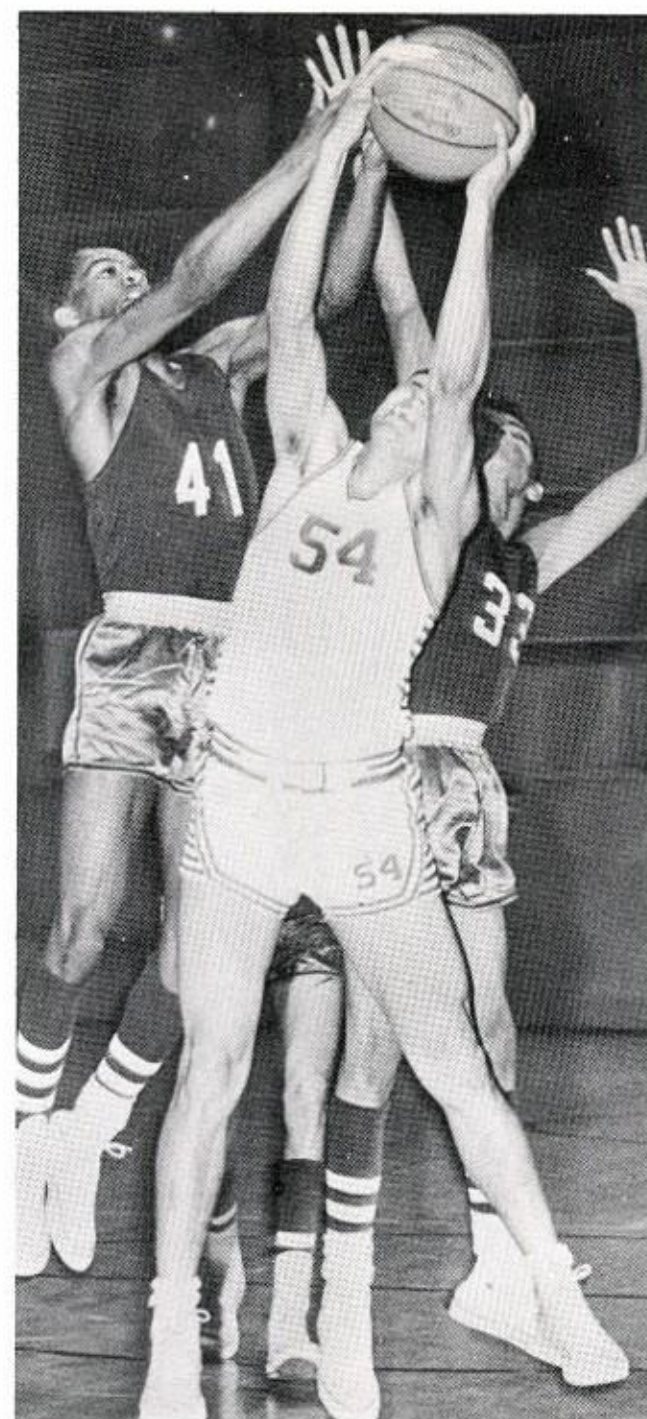

George Falcon and Warren McVea scramble for a rebound.

BRACK 41 FOX TECH 48

Fox Tech's Buffaloes rallied in the fourth quarter to defeat the Warbirds, 48-41. The Eagles led by slim margins throughout most of the first three quarters and led 32-30 at the beginning of the final stanza. Ruben Whitney's 13 points were high among Eagle scorers.

BRACK 37 BURBANK 59

The Burbank Bulldogs, riding an easy road to a district championship, overwhelmed the Eagles, 59-37. Brack was completely swamped as Bulldogs Roy Gamez and Carlos Guzman accounted for a total of 43 points.

BRACK 44 LANIER 66

Brack's cagers were helpless against a fired-up Lanier team as the Voks clinched second place in district with a 66-44 win over the Warbirds. Lanier jumped off to a 22-point halftime lead and coasted the remainder of the game. Ruben Whitney led Brackenridge in defeat with 15 points.

BRACK 39 LAREDO 48

Having dropped their opener to the Eagles, the Laredo Martin Tigers rebounded in the second round for a 48-39 victory in the Warbirds' final game of the 1963 season. The loss climaxed four consecutive losses by the Eagles as they fell from contention in the district race.

One of Brackenridge's most outstanding organizations is the Eagle Band. Mr. Bill Dabney instructs and directs the beginner, intermediate, and advanced bands. An added attraction is the dance band, which plays popular music.

Long, constant hours of practice before and after school improve the playing and marching ability of the band. It plays at assemblies, lends its support at parades, rallies, and performs at football games.

1962-63 Eagle Band

Wherever the football players traveled, the band followed. It participated in one of Brack's most exciting football seasons. During the championship play-offs, band members traveled to Brownsville, Houston, and Abilene, and they were privileged to perform at the banquet honoring the football players at La Villita Assembly Hall. Due to these play-off activities, the band did not participate in Interscholastic League Band Competition.

Drum Major Robert Zapata was elected All-City Drum Major of the 1962-63 school year. In this capacity, he led all bands at the Band Festival at Alamo Stadium in April. Seventeen local bands, including Brackenridge, and five out-of-town bands participated in this event, which demonstrated the marching and playing ability of each band.

The Eagle Band also represented Brack in the Rodeo, Fiesta, Battle of Flowers, and Flambeau parades.

Hard work, long hours, and tedious practice sessions all combine to make the Brackenridge Purple Jackets one of the outstanding pep squads in the city.

The PJs represent the school at various school and civic activities throughout the year as well as being largely responsible for the overwhelming school spirit which has for many years marked Brackenridge as one of San Antonio's top schools.

1962-63 Purple Jackets

During football season, all PJs prepare for their halftime drills by getting an early start at 7:30 each morning.

Aside from attending all football games, they also assist students and teachers on registration day and usher at Open House. The football banquet, honoring the players, was sponsored by the pep squad. On December 20, a Christmas party was held to honor the football team.

Many loyal Brackites were proud of their school colors as they were displayed by the Purple Jackets when they marched during Fiesta week in the Battle of Flowers parade, the Pilgrimage to the Alamo, and the colorful Flambeau.

The event long-awaited by each PJ is the annual Purple Jacket banquet and coronation honoring past and future officers.

For those warm weather practice sessions, the PJs have new bermuda shorts and shirts which display the Brackenridge Eagle; and white, furry ear muffs for those crisp nights at the games.

From September through March, the staff worked vigorously to produce the 1963 La Retama, "A Million Magic Moments." The book was planned at summer staff meetings, and the production commenced in September. The staff spent long, tiring hours preparing copy, layouts, getting pictures, selling advertising, and meeting deadline after deadline, hoping that this book will be as good as the 1962 La Retama which was rated All-Texas and won a first and second division in other yearbook competition.

Outstanding Paper

An experienced senior staff, an enlarged junior staff, interest, work and play. These are the ingredients that made the Brackenridge Times an outstanding school newspaper.

Gaining valuable experience as juniors when they helped the Times win second place among San Antonio high schools at the Trinity University Career Day judging, the editorial staff guided Texas' oldest high school newspaper to an All-Texas Honor Rating at the Texas High School Press Association convention and a First Division rating by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

The Times is strictly a student publication. Journalism students gather and write stories, sell ads, and make up the paper while vocational printing students take care of the mechanical production of the paper.

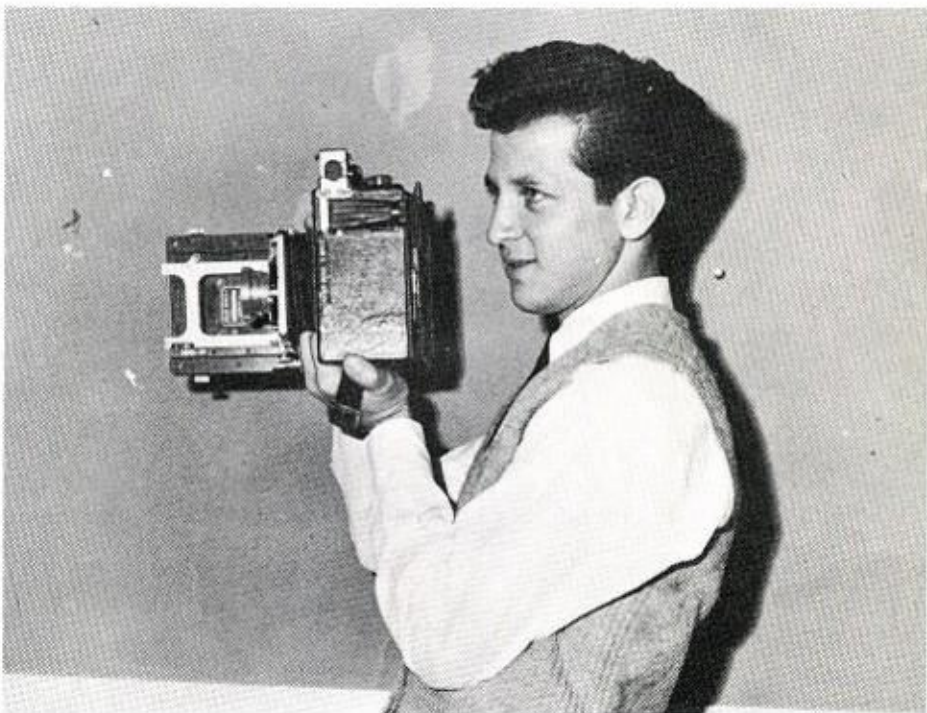

The fun part of the year consisted of coke parties during staff meetings, a weiner roast with the Science Club and the year-end banquet when new positions were announced.

S.C. Sell

Voting and discussions are common sights in the Student Council meetings.

The Student Council utilized good student government practices to weld a firm tie of cooperation between the student body and faculty throughout the 1962-63 school year.

The council conducted and participated in more activities than any other club or organization.

Sponsoring the Kick-Off Prom, the Holiday Hop, Color Day, and the safety assembly were only a few of the council's activities. In addition, members conducted the United Fund Drive, prepared Christmas baskets for the needy, collected for the newspaper and yearbook subscriptions and worked to make the open house and Mexican supper a success.

To help alleviate the growing school traffic problem, the council established a program of vehicle registration and distributed decals for autos parking on the campus.

In 1963, the Student Council held the post of secretary-treasurer of the Alamo Association of Student Councils.

The Purple Masques Dramatics Club was organized to encourage interest in the various phases of the theater.

The object of the club was to provide entertainment to the school and club members by presenting plays and to compete in speech and dramatics contests.

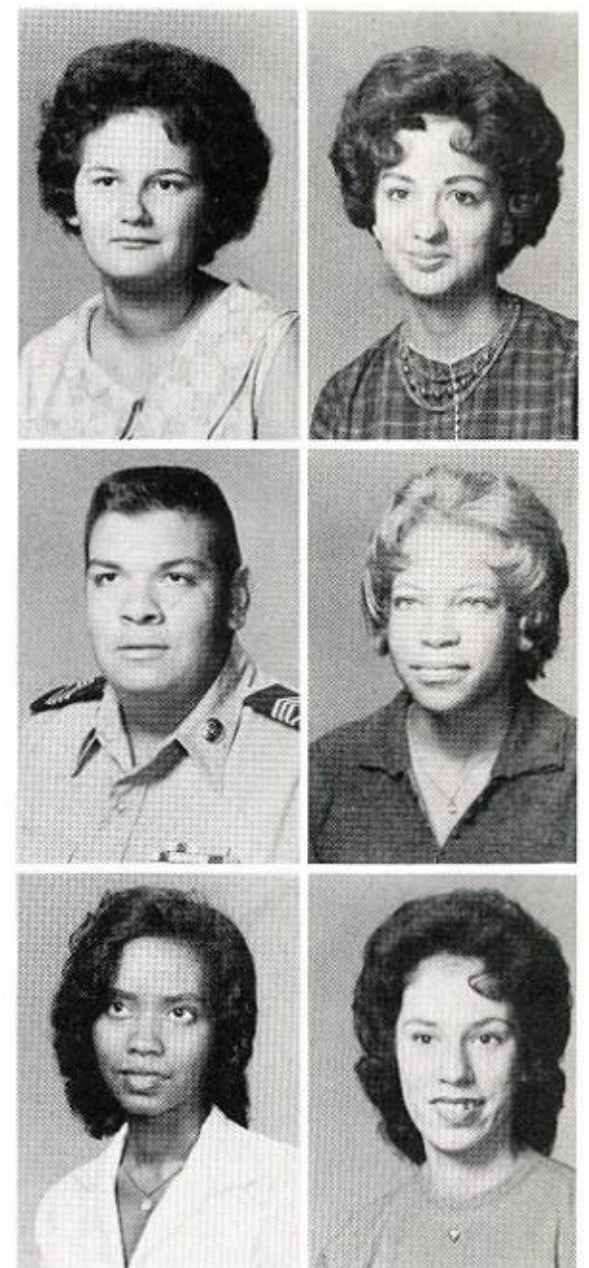

"Bubbles," "Minor Miracle" and "Red Carnation" were one-act plays presented at club meetings and to P.T.A. meetings.

In February, a formal initiation was held with the prospective members dressing in Greek togas for a candlelight ceremony.

La Voz Espanola, the newest club on the Brackenridge scene, was organized in 1962 as a cultural Spanish club, dedicated to improving the use of the "language of romance."

A Christmas banquet at a local Mexican restaurant was highlighted by the Spanish theme and by conducting all conversations in Spanish.

Reviving a custom of several years ago, La Voz Espanola, working with La Estrella Club, published an all-Spanish newspaper, "El Eco." Mario Torres served as editor-in-chief of this publication while Ernestine Melchor served as co-editor.

Junior Red Cross Aim

A club dedicated to helping those less fortunate is the Brackenridge chapter of the Junior Red Cross. The aims were carried out through drives conducted in advisories and by the members presenting a Christmas party and later a talent show at the Southton Convalescent Home for the Aged.

During the summer of 1962, President Rosemary Van Heuverswyn represented the chapter at Camp Fellowship at Goddard, Kansas, a camp designed to assist Junior Red Cross programs in every part of the country. Rosemary was later named corresponding secretary and historian of the Bexar County Junior Red Cross Council. Two other members, Marty Coy and Yolanda Jacinto, were named representatives to the council's meetings.

Printing such jobs as football ribbons, invitation letterheads, envelopes and class schedules are only part of the on-the-job training performed by the vocational printing students. In addition, V.I.C. Chapter 1 is an active club, with its members attending contests and conferences throughout the year. An exhibit at the Trade Fair and participation in San Antonio Printing Week contests were two projects of the year.

Rudy Sandoval has just printed a poster for the B basketball team.

The afternoon class poses at the Lee press.

V.I.C. members enjoy lunch before the convention at New Braunfels.

Trade Experience

Leonardo Lara and Arturo Guajardo set up the press.

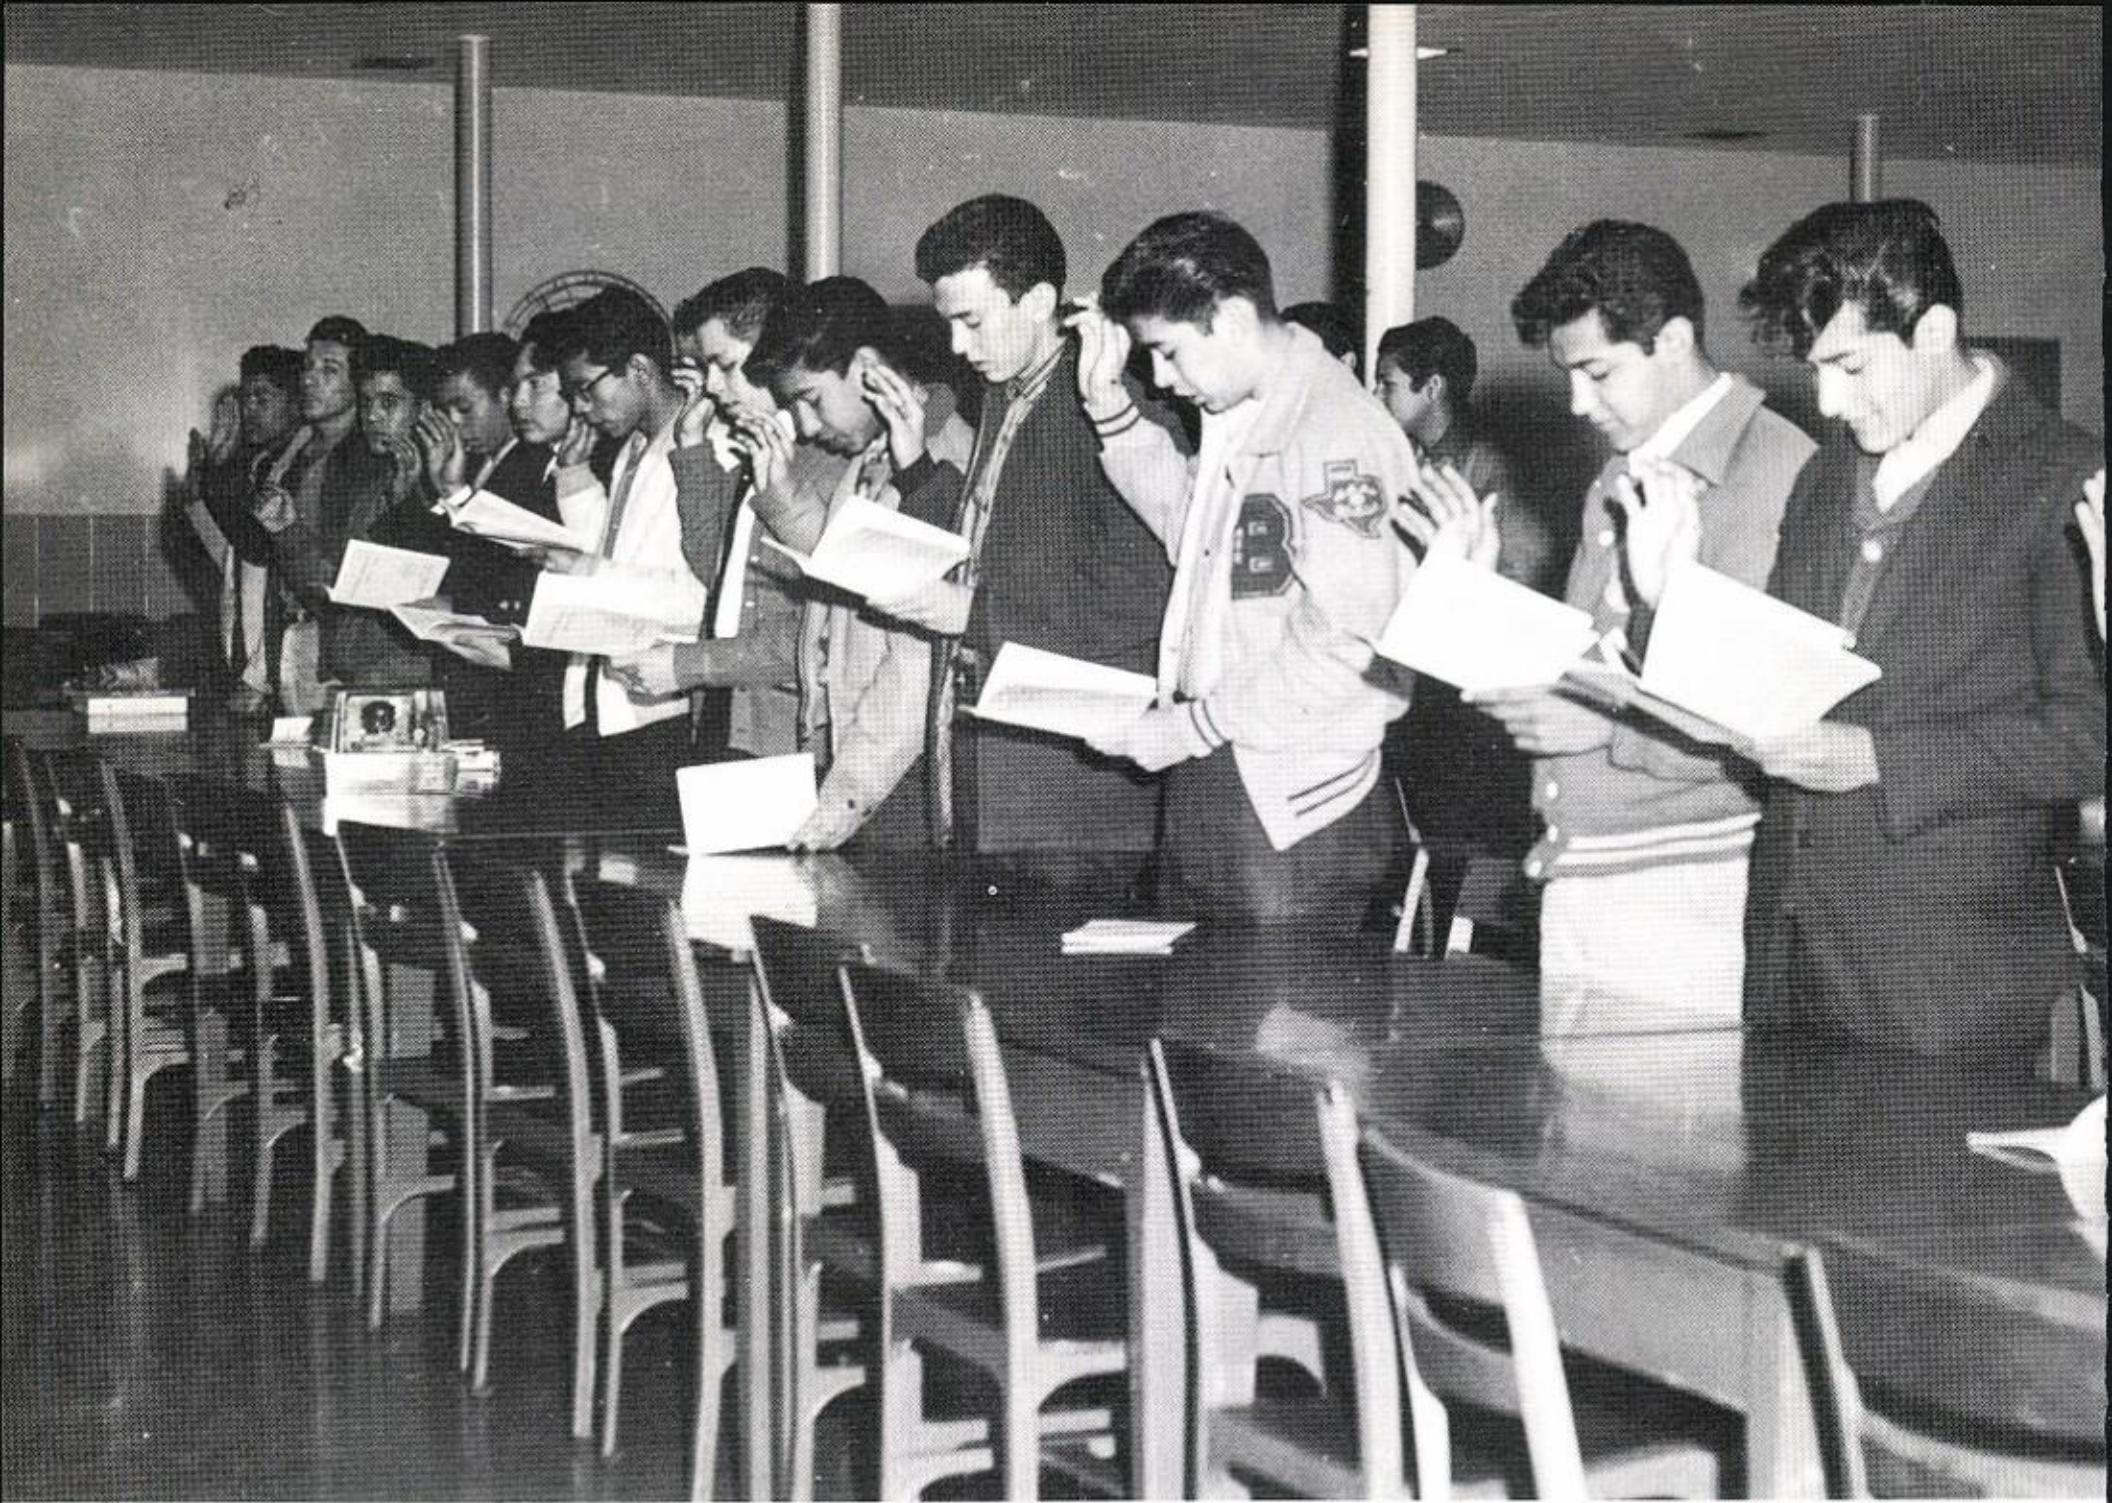

These students prepare to print the eagle on the offset press.

Beginning students learn to set type.

These members are on their way to the officers training meeting.

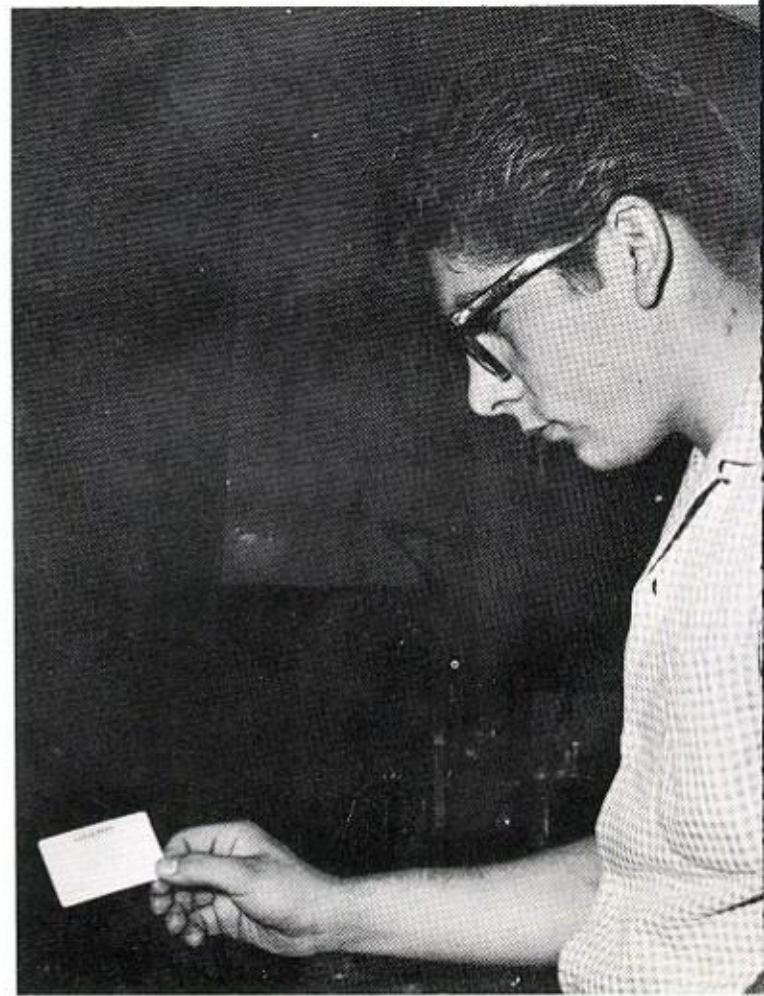

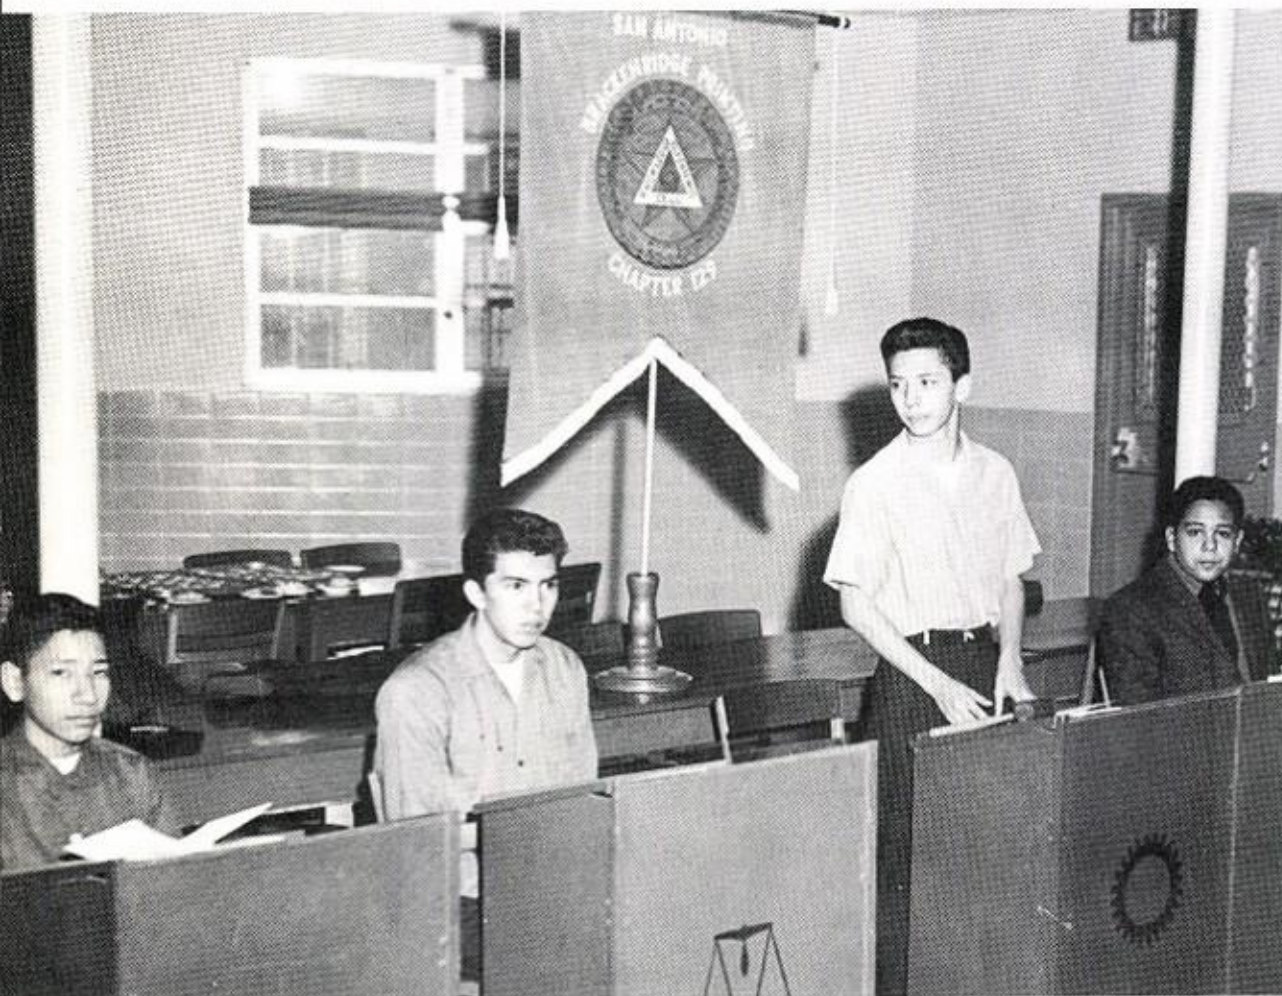

Printing students take the V.I.C. pledge.

Printing Week Contest

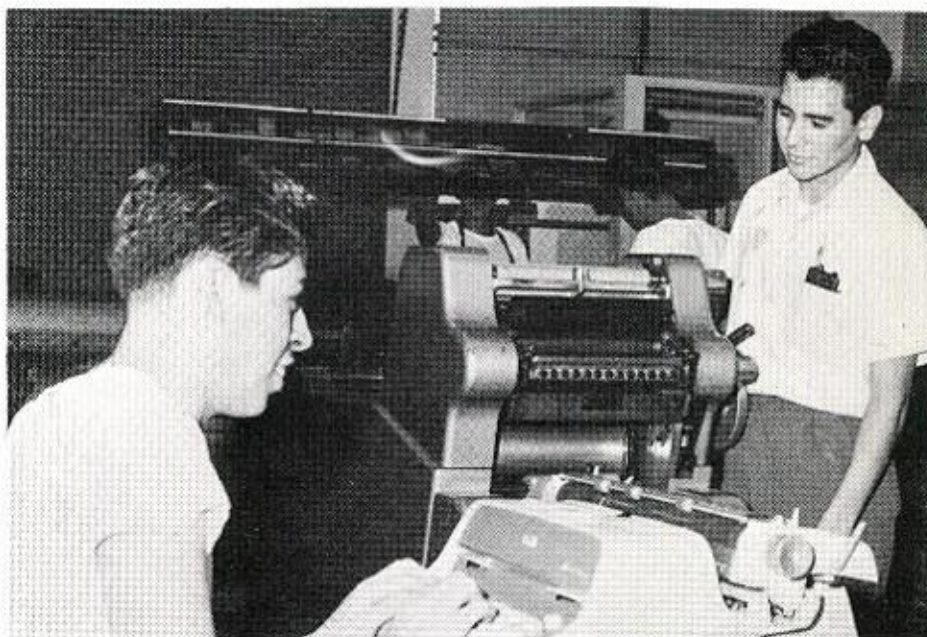

President Alfred Rodriguez presides at one of the meetings.

Billy Leal examines some of his work.

Seferino Rodriguez accepts an award for winning first place in the letterhead contest.

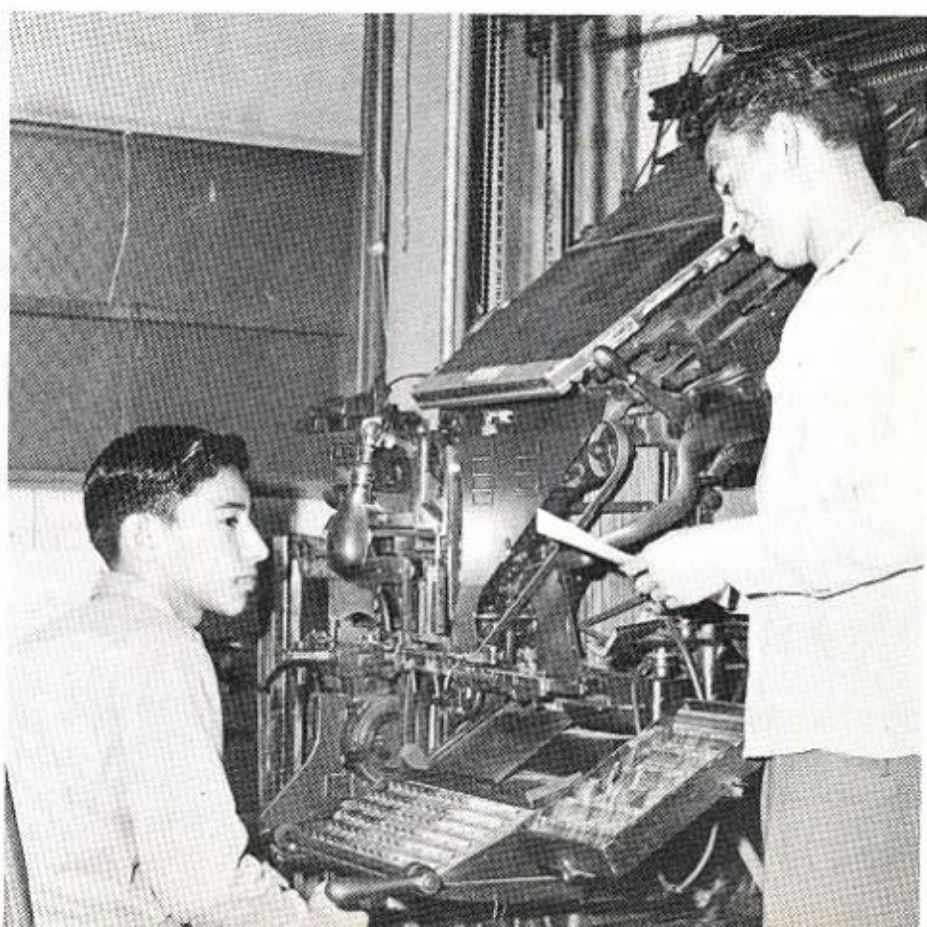

Luis Lozano shows Joe Dena how to prepare copy.

Pablo Olivo and Raymond Salas discuss copy to be set on the inter-type.

Lure Printers

Esequiel Bara operates the Miehle-Vertical press.

Morning Class

Metal shop students opened the year with an initiation into the Vocational Industrial Club. As the year progressed, they manned exhibits at the Trade Fair, entered contests, and increased their skill proficiency in class.

Jack Hodge operates a milling machine.

Woodworkers Skilled with Machines

Bernaldo Garcia is skilled in band sawing.

Working towards a well-paying profession as woodworkers, students of the Mill and Cabinet Shop learned by doing actual jobs of cabinet making, lathe work and furniture repair for the school. The experience they gain in class will prove invaluable when they graduate and apply for jobs.

David Grijalva and Richard Medellin seem to be busy joining a board.

Radio, T.V. Shop Up To Date

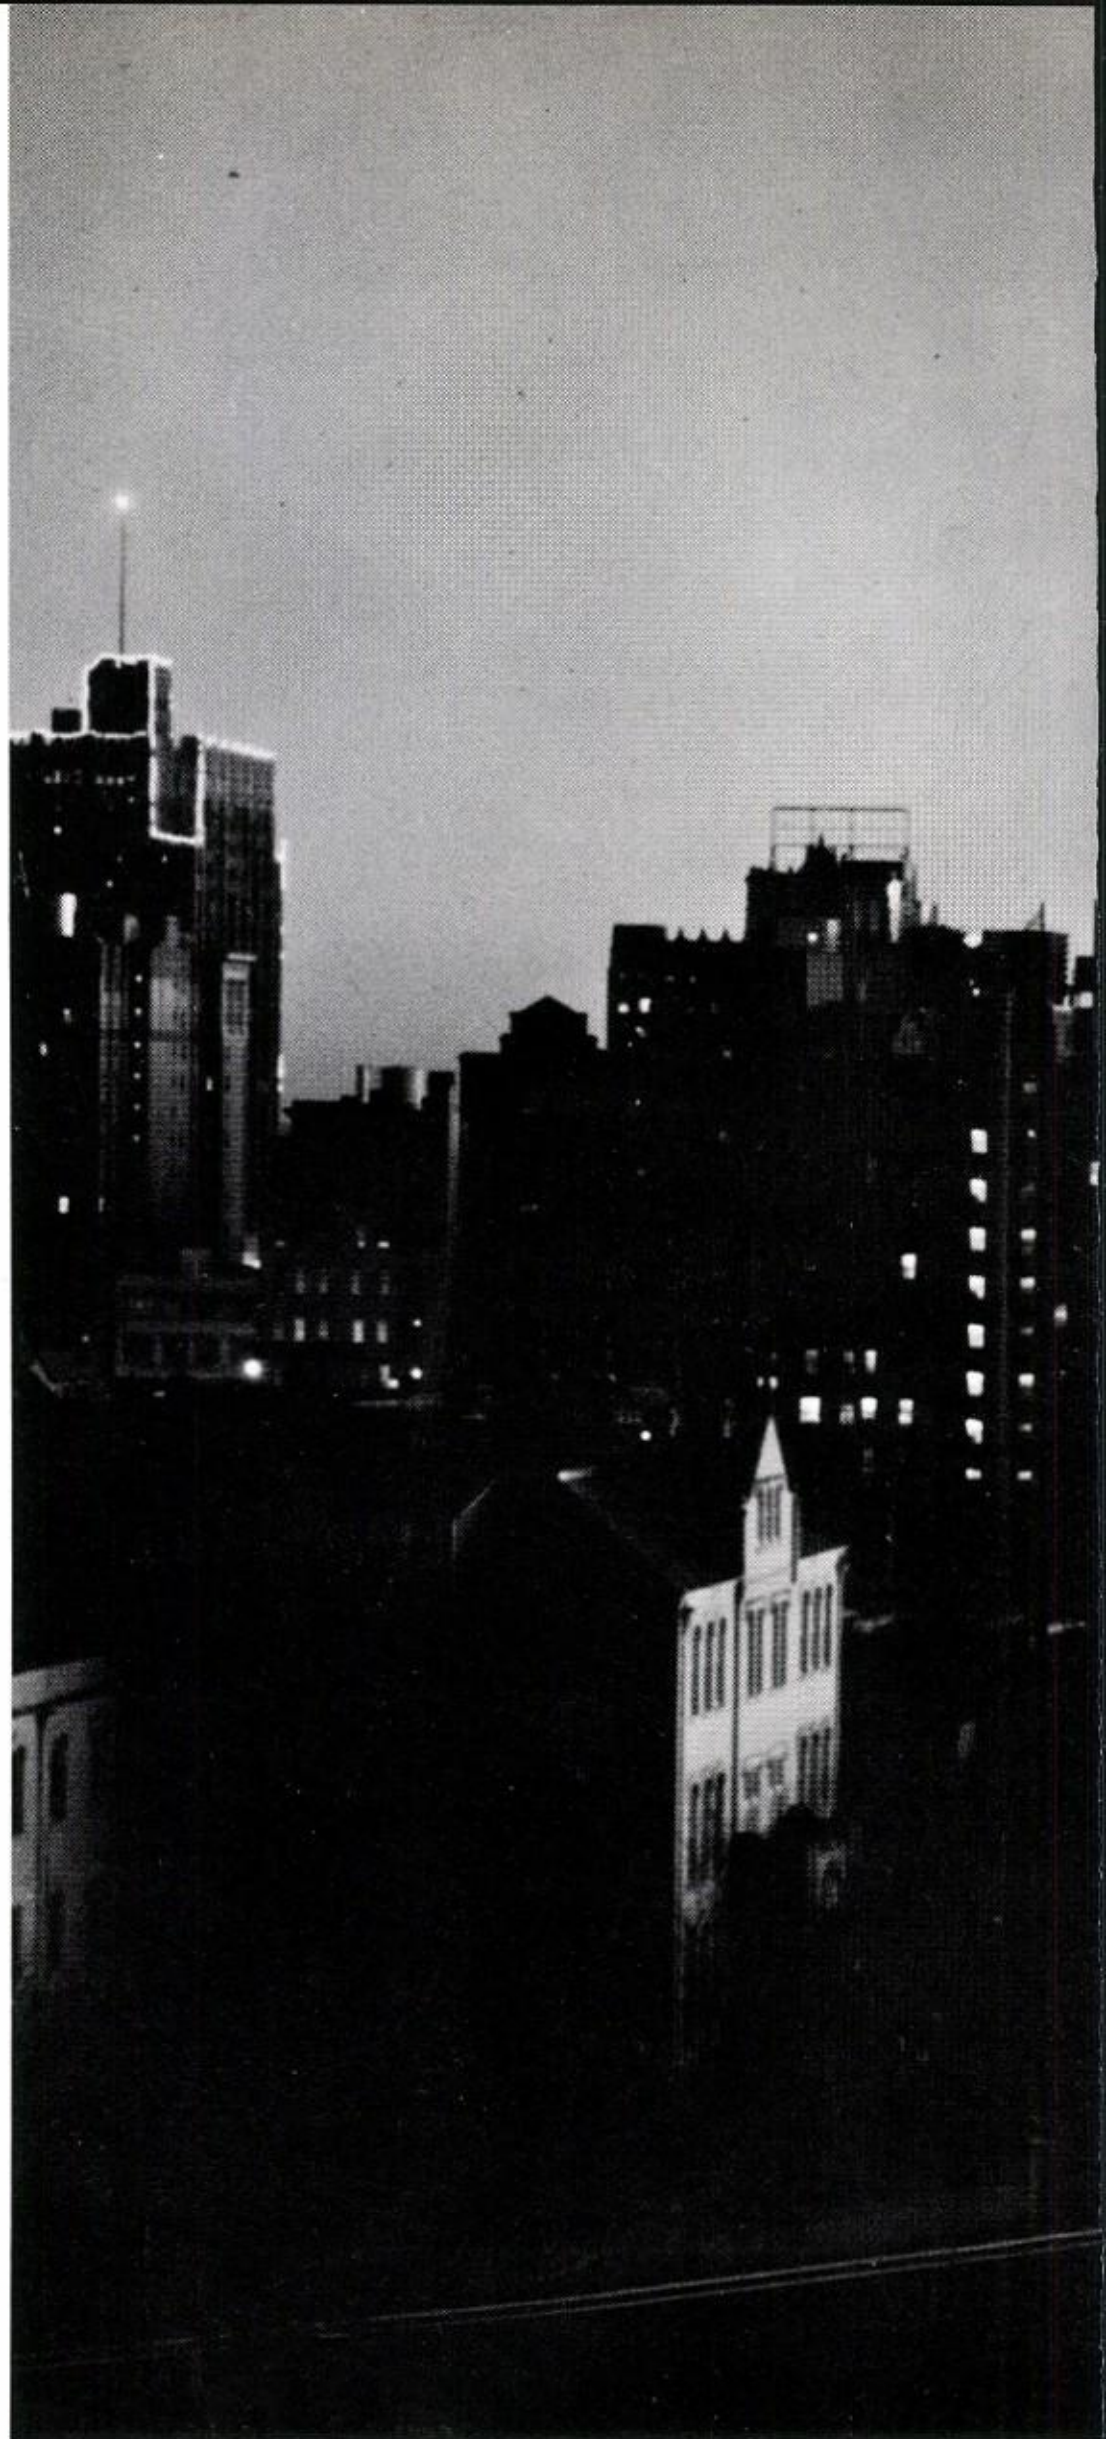

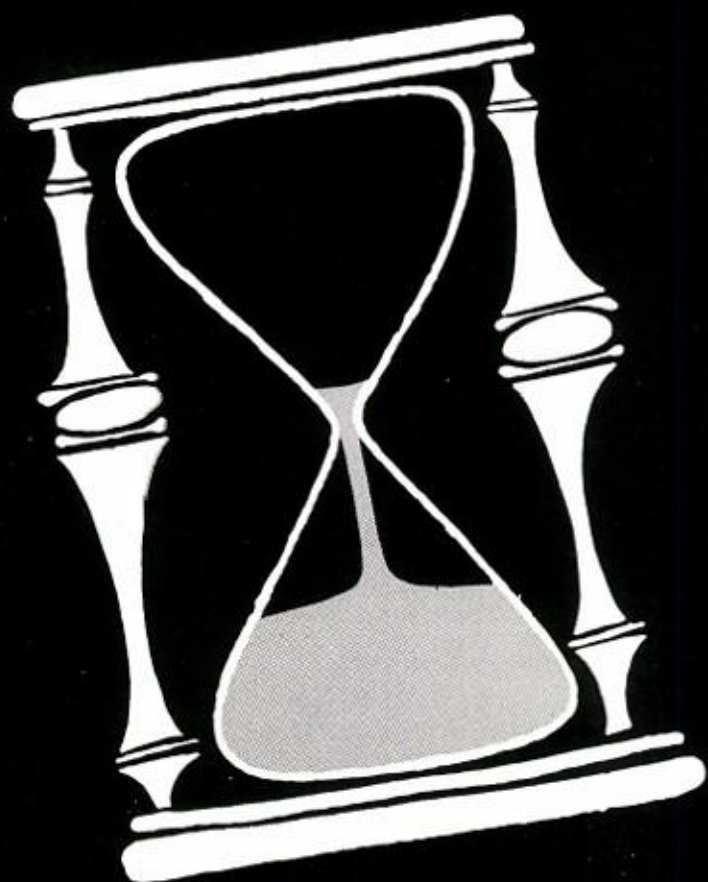

The vocational Radio and Television department provided public address system hook-ups for pep rallies and school assemblies. Their year also included the installation of a special antenna to receive the new educational television station.

Fidel Ledezma and Omer Labrie tune the oscilloscope.
